

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAM REPORT

Oct 1, 2011 – Dec 31, 2011

WRC-TV attempts to serve the public interest, convenience and necessity by presenting broadcast material that treats significant issues of the people in the communities served by WRC-TV station. WRC recognizes that it has an ongoing obligation to remain aware of such community issues and to exercise its best judgment as to what broadcast matter should be programmed to treat those needs and interests.

The following is a brief description of such community issues and some of the programs we believe have provided the most significant treatment of such issues during the period Oct 1, 2011 – Dec 31, 2011, including the title of such program, its time, type, source, date and duration of broadcast.

NEWS FOUR AT FIVE AND ELEVEN A.M., FOUR, FIVE, SIX AND ELEVEN P.M. TYPE: News Series SOURCE: Local TIME: 5:00-7:00AM, 11:00-12:00 PM, 4:00-5:00PM, 5:00-6:00PM, 6:00-7:00PM, 11:00-11:35PM, Monday – Friday; 6:00-6:30PM, Saturday and Sunday. NEWS 4 TODAY. TYPE: News SOURCE: Local TIMES: Weekdays, 5:00-7:00AM, Saturdays, 6:00-7:00AM, 9:00-10:00AM, Sundays, 6:00AM-8:00AM, and 9:00AM-10:30AM. DURATION: See Times. WRC-TV reporters probe special issues of concern to area residents. Stories generally appear more than once in the daily newscasts, as they are recapped throughout the day. WRC-TV initiated, in December 1992, active closed captioning of its news broadcasts. Currently, all regularly scheduled news programs thirty minutes or longer are closed-captioned. Also, special news events sometimes are closed captioned, depending on the availability of the transcription service. The word for word transcription service includes chitchat between stories at two hundred plus words per minute, with less than a three-second delay. This effort addresses the needs of more than 300,000 deaf and hard of hearing people in the Washington area.

THE MCLAUGHLIN GROUP. TYPE: Public Affairs SOURCE: Syndicated (Originates from WRC-TV studios) TIME: Saturdays, 7:30-8:00PM, Repeated Sundays, 11:30AM. DURATION: thirty Minutes. This public affairs panel anchored by John McLaughlin, features discussion and analysis of current national and world events by five candid and respected Washington commentators.

ONE ON ONE. TYPE: Public Affairs SOURCE: Syndicated (Originates from WRC-TV) TIME: Sundays, 12:00 DURATION: Thirty Minutes. Host John McLaughlin interviews a prominent political or world leader each week on selected newsworthy issues.

REPORTERS NOTEBOOK. TYPE: Public Affairs SOURCE: Local TIME: Sundays, 6:15-6:30AM. DURATION: Fifteen Minutes. This reporter roundtable, which premiered on October 4, 1992, features discussion of public affairs issues by leading area journalists. The program is part of News 4 Today and usually is hosted by WRC-TV reporter Tom Sherwood. Journalist Milagros Ardin, WMAL-AM; Dave McConnell, WTOP-AM; and Jerry Phillips, WBIG-FM/WTEM-AM, join him.

VIEWPOINT. TYPE: Public Affairs SOURCE: Local TIME: Sundays, 7:00-7:30AM. DURATION: Thirty Minutes. WRC-TV's Joe Krebs hosts this weekly exploration of issues and people impacting the community. The program is part of the two hour News 4 Today news block on Sundays from 6:00-8:00AM. It premiered on November 15, 1992

Kids/Family

Many children in the Washington effort suffer from being denied the opportunity to grow up in a stable home with parents who can care for them emotionally and financially. WRC-TV helps these children directly through its Wednesday's Child project, described below. The station also broadcasts other news stories on the issue of adoption, some of which are described below.

NEWS FOUR AT FIVE PM. – WEDNESDAY'S CHILD. WRC-TV's Barbara Harrison, on selected Wednesdays, features a child or children who need a home, or celebrates a happy ending to an adoption story. In September, Barbara Harrison, with the Council of Governments, launched a program through which viewers may dial a phone number and find out more about adopting a child through any jurisdiction in our viewing area. Some of the stories are repeated on News 4 Sundays at nine AM.

Health

10-26-11: Today on News 4, were starting a weight loss Battle of the Ages.

10-26-11: It's Nordic Food Day, and students were treated to authentic dishes from Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway, and Sweden.

10-27-11: After several months of review, the Food and Drug Administration now says that several new birth control drugs can significantly increase the risk of blood clots compared to older medication.

10-27-11: There's a new hope for better breast cancer surgery.

10-28-11: How accurate are calorie counters on cardio machines?

10-31-11: New research shows there is no increased risk of breast cancer if women aren't carriers of a certain gene.

11-1-11: Doreen Gentzler has details on a new scientific research that could be the answer to what feels like a doomed diet.

11-1-11: A consumer watchdog group is calling for the boycott of Johnson and Johnson's iconic baby shampoo.

11-1-11: Findings of a new study may ease fears among millions of parents whose children take medication to treat attention deficit hyperactivity disorders.

11-2-11: This week on "What's Your Workout?" were checking out Soldier Fit, an exercise boot camp.

11-8-11: Doreen Gentzler joins us with details on a new type of scan that could save patients time, while making it easier for doctors to figure out a diagnosis.

11-9-11: On tonight's, "What's Your Workout?" we meet a young man who lost both of his legs and a hand yet he's still working out at the gym.

11-14-11: The human body has an amazing ability to repair itself when damaged. Now doctors are utilizing those abilities to help restore heart function after a heart attack.

11-14-11: Researchers in Portugal say they've developed a new kind of pajama made from an extract of shrimp shells to cure your skin.

Consumer

9-15-11: Liz Crenshaw talks about saving your carbon footprint.

9-15-11: Downtown Silver Spring opens the Fillmore.

9-19-11: Businesses that encourage customers to pay with cash by offering a discount.

9-20-11: A new report from the Inspector General's office at the Justice Department details excessive spending for event planning and refreshments at ten department conferences.

9-22-11: Sue Herrera from CNBC joins us live now with more on why stocks took such a tumble today.

9-22-11: More schools are adding healthy options for students.

9-26-11: Mystery charges on bills and credit card statements.

9-26-11: Langley Park residents unhappy with current living situations.

9-27-11: The sale of crib bumper pads could be banned in the state of Maryland, a new study shows people are getting sick trying to get rid of bed bugs, and how much it costs to fly this holiday season.

9-29-11: Liz Crenshaw reports misguided serving sizes on labels.

9-30-11: New debit card fees, pepper prices, regulating volume of TV ads on Ask Liz.

9-30-11: Food truck application that lets customers know where they are located.

10-3-11: Battle of the brownie mix with Liz Crenshaw.

10-4-11: An investigation into hot water heaters installed in Montgomery County has led to great safety concerns.

10-4-11: Apple unveils its newer faster version of the popular iPhone today.

10-5-11: In Adams Morgan, some businesses are complaining about what they're calling construction chaos.

10-6-11: Business icon, Steve Jobs, is being remembered around the world today as one of the greatest visionaries and innovators of our time.

10-6-11: Memorials are also growing in our area as people salute Jobs' life and legacy.

10-6-11: A potential victory for hundreds of renters in Prince Georges County fighting to keep their homes.

10-6-11: Hiring lawn professionals for fall yard work.

10-7-11: Pink gloves and shoes on NFL Sunday, the shelf life for shampoo and conditioner, and jury duty selections on Ask Liz.

10-10-11: The Eggies System on "Does it Really Do That?" with Liz Crenshaw.

10-11-11: How to pay college loans affordably, stroller recall, and holiday season travel with Liz Crenshaw.

10-12-11: Wal-Mart has signed its first lease to open a store in the District.

10-12-11: Three-day outage for blackberry users across North America.

10-13-11: Significant changes in credit card rules have taken place over the past year, some taking effect this month.

10-14-11: Compensation for blackberry users, fruit flies in the fall, and foliage on trees on today's Ask Liz.

10-14-11: Apple launches its first product since the death of Steve Jobs, the iPhone 4s.

10-17-11: How to find the best prices on groceries. Liz Crenshaw reports.

10-18-11: Marketers shutdown for misleading customers, switching banks, and a warning against fashion contact lenses on Ask Liz.

10-20-11: From shouting in cyberspace to bill cramming, and paying for parking with your cell phone bill on "What Happens Next?"

10-21-11: Location of stink bugs, counterfeit bills from the bank, and nutritional information on popcorn containers.

10-21-11: A Fairfax County dry cleaners have closed up shop with customers clothes still inside.

10-21-11: Picking the right foods to help strengthen hair, nails, and skin.

10-21-11: Horses will begin racing again at Rosecroft Raceway in Prince Georges County.

10-24-11: Wal-Mart is trying a new strategy to lure bargain hunters this holiday.

10-24-11: How to stay safe this Halloween.

10-27-11: DC Housing program that is helping local families go green and become homeowners.

10-27-11: Some consumers are having a hard time affording their monthly cell phone bill.

10-28-11: How to make carved pumpkins last longer and keep squirrels away from eating jack-o-lanterns on today's, Ask Liz.

10-31-11: Experts recommend getting your fireplace and furnaces inspected especially after the earthquake.

10-31-11: Liz Crenshaw has the details on Bank of America reversal charges and fake iPads.

11-1-11: Bank of America announced today that is dropping plans to charge customers a five dollar fee for using a debit card.

11-3-11: There's new federal help when it comes to protecting consumers when they borrow money.

11-4-11: Washington Post restaurant critic Tom Sietsema review on Thai X-ing.

11-4-11: Can political campaigns send text messages, how dispatchers know locations when dialing 9-1-1 from a cell phone, and daylight savings time hours on today's Ask Liz.

11-7-11: Procrastinators can catch late deals on holiday travel.

11-10-11: The Thundershirt on "Does It Really Do That?"

11-11-11: Why Redbox movies are more expensive, is it safe to park your car on pile of leaves, and Greyhound charges to non-travelers on this week's Ask Liz.

11-28-11: Liz Crenshaw with all the information on Charities: where to give and who to trust.

11-28-11: How to spot Internet scammers on cyber Monday.

Kids & Family

9-14-11: A television show is filming around the DC area recording Washington's monuments and government buildings.

9-14-11: The Washington Humane Society is offering potential owners free pet adoptions.

9-14-11: Wednesday's child profiles Wayne who now lives in Atlanta.

9-15-11: Drastic changes coming to the United States Postal Service to help save millions of dollars but could cost thousands their jobs.

9-15-11: The Redskins are celebrating Hispanic Heritage Week and some loyal fans are helping with a new fight song- Viva Los Redskins.

9-19-11: A big win for the Redskins against the Cardinals.

9-21-11: There's a mystery brewing at NASA this evening over a decommissioned satellite.

9-21-11: Nine US Army airmen killed in World War II were buried together today in a single casket at Arlington National Cemetery.

9-21-11: Dozens of demonstrators marched to the gate of the Clark Construction worksite for the new Department of Homeland Security building.

9-21-11: Protestors crowded outside the Department of Homeland Security in Southwest Washington demanding that immigration authorities rescind their orders to deport four local mothers.

9-21-11: We meet Jorge on this edition of Wednesday's Child who has developmental challenges but is looking for a forever home.

9-23-11: Items from the Hawk & Dove bar, a popular Capitol Hill watering hole, will be sold off in October.

9-23-11: Tareq Salahi speaks to Matt Lauer about his unraveling marriage on the Today Show.

9-26-11: Redskins Fan frenzy in Washington.

9-28-11: The D.C. police department needs to hire 300 new police officers over the next year to keep the force from shrinking.

9-28-11: 12 year-old Jayden on this Wednesday's Child.

9-29-11: The historic U St landmark, The Lincoln Theatre, is running out of money.

9-29-11: Pam Foltz, the first female firefighter in Montgomery County, is retiring.

9-30-11: The Martin Luther King Library on G Street in downtown is set to close.

10-3-11: Home videos of the royal family have been released.

10-4-11: Doctor Adam Reiss from Johns Hopkins University won the Nobel Peace Prize in Physics.

10-4-11: In celebration of Hispanic Heritage month, NBC4 and Telemundo in Washington, D.C. have partnered for an essay contest for high school students.

10-4-11: Three area streets are among the 10 best streets in America according to the American Planning Association.

10-5-11: The demonstrators outside of Wall Street are getting bigger and more widespread.

10-5-11: Barbara Harrison talks to Paul on this week's episode of Wednesday's child.

10-5-11: Sending the right messages to young girls.

10-6-11: Some of the Country's largest companies along with the Governor of Maryland helped kick off national Bullying Prevention month in Annapolis.

10-6-11: Apple has not announced an official cause of death for Steve Jobs but he was diagnosed with a rare form of pancreatic cancer seven years ago.

10-6-11: The kickoff song to Monday Night Football for the past two decades will not be heard again.

10-7-11: Convicted murderer Troy Davis's execution last week raised concerns about eyewitness testimony.

10-7-11: Generosity of local homebuilders and a charity that provides free homes for injured veterans.

10-7-11: Teachers at a Prince William County elementary school got a shock today when a deer ran through a window and wandered around the classroom.

10-10-11: Country singer Alan Jackson will perform a free concert in Mineral after the earthquake.

10-11-11: A potbellied pig found wandering along a road in Prince William County needs a home.

10-12-11: First Lady Michelle Obama spotted out shopping at Target in Alexandria.

10-12-11: The contributions of late gay rights activists Frank Kameny are being remembered tonight in Washington.

10-12-11: One of our Wednesday's children has been recognized during an awards ceremony on Capitol Hill.

10-12-11: Tom Costello on how to keep your home safe this winter.

10-18-11: A three year old boy recovers after falling into an abandoned well.

10-18-11: A new text messaging service called "Fake Girlfriends" allows you to send a stranger a text and responds with a series of loving messages.

10-18-11: Wounded warriors recovering at Walter Reed got some special encouragement from the Haitian amputee soccer team to overcome adversity.

10-18-11: An American engineer who has evacuated from the South Pole is awaiting the results of medical tests.

10-19-11: An emergency food pantry has been forced to temporarily close its doors in Dumfries, Virginia.

10-19-11: 3-year-old Donnelle, one of our Wednesday's children celebrates a birthday, .

10-19-11: The American engineer rescued from the South Pole after a medical emergency says she won't be 100 percent again.

10-20-11: A Boston firefighter made the catch of a lifetime when he caught a boy dangling from the window of a burning building earlier this week.

10-21-11: President Barack Obama says the remaining US troops in Iraq will be home for the holidays.

10-21-11: Soggy Jack-O-Lanterns in September. Julie Carey reports.

10-24-11: President Obama visits Nevada to talk about a plan designed to help more homeowners refinance.

10-24-11: A community benefits to help raise money and promote healing since the tragic crash that claimed a popular Walkersville high school student.

10-25-11: Military veterans in the District got a chance to meet with potential employers.

10-25-11: Easter Seals and the Falls Church City Council have reached a deal on the Child Development Center. They will continue operating on the city owned land for the next two years with some provisions.

10-25-11: The latest video to go viral on YouTube involves a military dad reading a story to his toddler daughter.

10-25-11: Nearly 900 volunteers have joined in the search to find 9-year-old autistic child Robbie Wood Jr.

10-26-11: The search continues for a nine-year-old boy with autism who went missing over the weekend in Virginia.

10-26-11: This week's Wednesday's child is Shanell who wants to be a singer.

10-28-11: This afternoon, 8 year-old Robert Wood Jr. was found alive in Hanover County.

10-28-11: NBC news is about to unveil a new program called "Rock Center with Brian Williams."

10-28-11: An 8 year-old boy whose been missing for 6 days has been found alive.

10-28-11: More deer during this season can pose a real safety hazard as one ends up in the tidal basin.

10-28-11: A New Hampshire scientist who suffered a stroke at the South Pole has arrived in our area and is hoping for a full recovery.

10-31-11: A Caroline County boy remains hospitalized in good condition after spending 5 nights lost in the wilderness.

10-31-11: Shomari Stone is in Georgetown tonight with more on the Halloween Festivities.

11-1-11: Kim Kardashian divorces Kris Humphries.

11-2-11: New fall out in the divorce of Kim Kardashian and Kris Humphries. Kris Jenner promotes her new book on the Today Show.

11-2-11: A huge honor at the White House for a DC Dance program that helps at Risks young people.

11-2-11: One of our Wednesday's children, Cameron, has found a permanent and loving home.

11-2-11: All over the area they're shelling out a dollar or more for a chance to win at the almost a quarter billion dollars.

11-3-11: A public memorial service is being held for Doctor Frank Kameny, a longtime gay rights activist.

11-3-11: Greece's prime minister has abandoned his explosives plan to put a European bailout plan to popular vote.

11-3-11: Former NBC Nightly news Anchor Tom Brokaw was in the District today speaking at the Newseum.

11-4-11: More than 175 sailors received a hero's welcome as they returned home from a three-month long stint in Afghanistan today.

11-4-11: The Coast Guard in Santa Cruz, California is warning surfers and boaters to beware.

11-7-11: Area non-profits are hurting in this economy. They hope to get a lot of help with a campaign called "Give to the Max."

11-7-11: "Guide Dogs" in this country have long been an important part of the lives of thousands of people who are infirm or unable to see.

11-8-11: DC is the scene tonight for the national premier of a new movie called "J Edgar."

11-9-11: Student athletes at the University of Maryland are upset about some possible program cuts coming that could affect several athletic programs.

11-9-11: DC residents are mad at possible medical marijuana stores in the district.

11-9-11: Tonight's Wednesday's Child is a lovely 15 year-old who has her sights set on reaching some very lofty goals.

11-10-11: After years of neglect and obscurity and a 4 million dollar makeover, a unique memorial to World War I was rededicated on the National Mall today.

11-11-11: This week's quick bites feature DuPont Circle's Floriana's.

11-11-11: People are celebrating this once in a lifetime day with some memorable events.

11-28-11: Disney has decided it will not build a hotel at National Harbor on land it brought there 2 years ago.

11-28-11: The story of a pup named Daniel who was about to be put to sleep.

Health

9-14-11: A DC woman who lost 150 pounds and is now working to get her body to the next level.

9-15-11: TV talk show host Dr. Memhet Oz claimed that apple juice has high levels of arsenic but the FDA say that information is misleading.

9-20-11: A new report on attention deficit hyperactivity disorder ADHD is opening some eyes.

9-20-11: Medical experts are questioning whether one screening process is actually worth the time or money.

9-21-11: Anti-gravity yoga where all the poses are either upside down or suspended in the air.

9-23-11: 2500 people embarked on a long walk this morning in the name of the Susan G. Komen breast cancer walk.

9-23-11: Doctors say all the rain we've had recently has caused ragweed and molds to grow out of control this season.

9-26-11: A new study finds the more caffeine a woman drinks, the lower her risk for depression.

9-26-11: A debate among sperm donors due to a new documentary.

9-27-11: In News Four Your Health, finding out which flu vaccine is right for you.

9-28-11: This edition of "What's your Workout?" showcases Kettlebell.

9-29-11: Seasonal Affective Disorder in a sunless September.

10-3-11: A new study suggests anesthesia could cause problems later in life for kids.

10-5-11: A life-saving cancer drug, Herceptin, which comes with a big drawback and can cause serious damage to your heart.

10-5-11: This weekend is the Army 10-miler where 30,000 runners from around the country will meet up at the Pentagon for one of the city's most popular races.

Transportation

9-14-11: We begin with an emergency on the runway at Dulles Airport.

9-19-11: A state agency is giving a boost to a plan to remake the city of New Carrollton in Prince George's County.

9-26-11: A major road construction project is causing headaches for some homeowners in Georgetown who are getting surprise parking tickets.

9-27-11: A new survey finds traffic congestion in the D.C. region is the worst in the nation.

9-28-11: Metro is suing its insurance company for millions to recover some of the losses from the red line metro crash.

9-30-11: Big traffic changes are coming to the inner loop of the Capitol beltway tomorrow. One of two exits from the Beltway to I-66 westbound will close.

10-3-11: New developments on the 7-billion dollar Dulles rail project. A new report shows it's behind schedule as much as six months, despite statements from officials who say it's on time.

10-3-11: Congestion in Northern Virginia is the worst in the region according to Governor Bob McDonnell, now he's commissioning a study to figure out how to change that.

10-3-11: Officials decided today to remove the 19 dollar cap on DC cab fares meaning the meter will keep running until you reach your destination.

10-4-11: A glitch caused a speed camera in Prince George's county to issue tickets during a time when it shouldn't have been activated.

10-7-11: Montgomery County executive Isaiah Leggett says his county needs nearly three times the money it has been allotted to pay for BRAC constructive projects.

10-10-11: NBC's Tom Costello looked into how our gadgets can affect planes and aviation equipment.

10-11-11: Japanese officials are proposing an unprecedented campaign to lure tourists back to Japan thousands of free plane tickets.

10-12-11: Metro is taking another look at how it handled a chaotic commute for thousands of orange line passengers when a man was hit by a train at the Clarendon station.

10-17-11: A tractor trailer accident caused a messy morning commute for drivers in the Suitland area.

10-17-11: Virginia state police started a big crackdown today to stop people from making their own parking spots at the Woodbridge commuter lot.

10-17-11: First Lady Michelle Obama is lending a helping hand to an army medic wounded in Afghanistan.

10-18-11: Motorists will no longer be arrested and jailed if stopped by police for forgetting to renew their car registration.

10-19-11: The morning commute was extra chaotic for drivers off Interstate 95 in Virginia today after an overnight paving project crumbled.

10-19-11: On Missouri Ave in Northwest, a photo enforcement camera is causing a bit of controversy.

10-21-11: The popular "Capital Bikeshare" program is raising its rental prices to help pay for some expansion.

10-24-11: A popular parking lot in downtown Bethesda will close.

10-24-11: One man is furious and confused after getting two parking tickets in his own neighborhood.

10-26-11: The price of gas in Maryland could rise to one of the highest rates in the country.

10-26-11: Air fares are on their way up and they could go even higher as the holidays get closer.

10-27-11: A plane carrying Michelle Obama had to abort a landing after flying too close to a military cargo jet.

11-2-11: Budget cuts in the District government could be good news for some drivers who are afraid of getting their cars booted.

11-4-11: VDOT will be shifting lanes along I-495 in Northern Virginia starting tonight.

11-4-11: Drivers who come into Fairfax County from Loudoun or Prince William are likely to notice a difference as soon as they cross the county line. The roadsides and medians are carpeted with campaign signs.

11-9-11: We're getting a close look at I 370 and I-270 designed to ease traffic headaches in Maryland.

11-9-11: Travelers who pass through Baltimore Washington parkway will see big changes as the airport will begin a 100 million dollar concourse renovation project.

11-14-11: The Department of Transportation has leveled a 900-thousand dollar fine against the regional carrier for American Airlines- American Eagle Airlines.

Environment

9-15-11: Today inspectors from FEMA and Prince Georges County toured Upper Marlboro to see the damage.

9-15-11: In Northern Virginia, families and businesses are trying to figure out how to get back to normal after last week's flooding.

9-19-11: After storms and floods ravaged areas of Prince William County some business owners in Woodbridge are still reeling with the aftermath.

9-20-11: Residents in one neighborhood in Northeast Washington have been up all night due to the loud drone of a generator right outside their window.

9-21-11: The D.C. area has one of the country's worst air quality in the nation as a new report by a local environmental group.

9-22-11: the possibility of rain has people from Maryland to Virginia on edge especially those still dealing with flood damage from the last round of heavy rain.

9-23-11: Upper Marlboro is one area keeping a very close eye on the weather this weekend. Residents there are still drying out and cleaning up from our last big batch of flooding.

9-23-11: Some homeowners in Virginia are keeping their eyes on a large retaining wall near their properties.

9-26-11: Tonight, a look inside the Washington Monument as the 5.8 tremor hit.

9-27-11: Emergency crews are on the scene of a hazmat situation in Northwest Washington as several dozens of people have been overcome by fumes and taken to the hospital.

9-27-11: It's been three weeks since devastating floods left more than a hundred Woodbridge residents homeless. Many are living in permanent homes but 40 families are not.

9-27-11: Pepco and BGE testified before the county council on their efforts to restore lights and power in the aftermath of Hurricane Irene.

9-27-11: Engineers have begun a five-day inspection of the Washington monument to check for cracks and other damage from last month's earthquake.

9-28-11: Four structural engineers scaled hundreds of feet up the Washington Monument today.

9-29-11: The high wire act at the Washington monument continued for a third day today.

9-30-11: Engineers inspecting the Washington monument for earthquake damage are making progress.

10-3-11: Its back to work today for engineers at the Washington monument after the weekend weather led to some snags in the inspection plans.

10-5-11: Engineers have completed their earthquake inspections along the exterior of the Washington Monument.

10-10-11: Members of people for the Ethical Treatment of Animals held a silent protest outside the D.C. Convention Center today in defense of monkeys.

10-14-11: Students at the University of Maryland say they were in fear for their life after receiving an alert from the university that a tornado was going to hit campus yesterday.

10-18-11: The engineers who rappelled down the Washington monument this month are inspecting the National Cathedral that was damaged in the August earthquake.

10-20-11: The Washington National Cathedral is hoping to get federal funding to help restore extensive damage from the earthquake in August.

10-24-11: Virginia Governor isn't taking "no" for an answer in requesting federal aid for some earthquake victims.

10-24-11: The desperate effort to find survivors of Turkey's powerful earthquake is still underway at this hour.

10-28-11: It may be a little early for snow, but local road crews and power companies say they're ready for whatever comes our way.

10-28-11: news 4's Pat Collins is live along I-95 with more on how people are reacting to possible winter conditions in October.

11-10-11: Crews returned to the Washington monument today to fill holes left by the August earthquake.

11-11-11: After months of construction to fix the earthquake damage, the National Cathedral is preparing for its grand reopening.

Politics

9-14-11: Republican presidential candidate Rick Perry spent the day campaigning in Virginia.

9-15-11: A new audit slams the District government for failing to collect thousands of dollars in fees and fines for trees that have been lost to redevelopment.

9-20-11: The D.C. council voted to raise income taxes on some of the city's wealthiest residents despite a likely budget surplus this year.

9-21-11: D.C. Mayor Vincent Gray called for a news conference today announcing a sweeping overhaul of the city's elections and ethics board.

9-21-11: Two American hikers jailed in Iran since 2009 are on their way home tonight.

9-21-11: President Obama is spending the day in meetings with world leaders at the United Nations.

9-22-11: Congress could have to work this weekend as lawmakers are suddenly scrambling to avoid a government shutdown.

9-22-11: In the District today, embattled D.C. council Chairman Kwame Brown had to call in police to toss reporters out of a secret meeting of D.C. council members.

9-23-11: D.C. Mayor Vincent Gray has decided to pull the nomination of Robert Mallett after a controversy over where he lived.

9-26-11: The senate is set to vote tonight on a short-term spending bill to avert a government shutdown on Friday.

9-27-11: It appears Congress may have come up with a deal to avert a government shutdown after midnight Friday.

9-28-11: Many are still wondering whether New Jersey governor Chris Christie will jump into the presidential race following his speech last night at the Regan Library.

9-30-11: President Barack Obama is calling the killing of Anwar Al-Awlaki a major blow to al-Qaida.

10-4-11: New Jersey Governor Chris Christie announced today that he has thought it over and has affirmed his decision not to run for the republican nomination.

10-4-11: Some D.C. Council members are now investigating why one firm competitor was given a grass-cutting contract that twice as expensive as a competitor who was doing a good job.

10-6-11: Demonstrators are gathered in downtown D.C. as part of the growing "occupy" movement that started on Wall Street last month.

10-6-11: President Barack Obama is putting more pressure on Congress to pass the American Jobs Act.

10-7-11: Demonstrators continue to pound the pavement in day two of the Occupy Wall Street protests here in D.C.

10-7-11: The chief federal prosecutor in the district said today that allegations of public corruption are a "big deal" and said they are being taken "very seriously."

10-7-11: The GOP presidential hopeful smiled for photos with supporters in Pentagon City today.

10-10-11: The deadline has come and gone for those anti-war protestors participating in Occupy D.C. to clear out of Freedom Plaza.

10-11-11: Six protestors were arrested today marking the first group arrest since the group arrived ten days ago.

10-11-11: Republican governor Bob McDonnell is inviting President Obama to tour the Virginia town damaged during the earthquake.

10-11-11: President Obama spent most of this day in Pennsylvania as his jobs plan nears its first big test in the Senate.

10-12-11: Despite the rainy weather, protestors are still taking their place in downtown D.C.

10-17-11: prosecutors in the District have decided not to press charges against the civil rights activist and Princeton professor Cornell West.

10-17-11: Maryland's General Assembly was back in Annapolis today for the start of a special legislative session.

10-17-11: Today, President Obama kicked off a three day bus tour through North Carolina and Virginia.

10-18-11: President Obama is in the second day of a three day bus tour to talk about his jobs plan.

10-18-11: Some local lawmakers are adding their support to a proposal in Maryland to add 15-cents to the state gas tax.

10-19-11: tempers flared during the Republican presidential debate in Las Vegas as Mitt Romney and Rick Perry sparred over illegal immigration.

10-19-11: Tens of thousands of people took to the streets in Greece today to protest new austerity measures.

10-21-11: There are still contradictory accounts of how Moammar Khaddafy died after being captured by revolutionary fighters in Libya.

10-21-11: Were following developments in two major international stories—U.S. troops coming home from Iraq and Libya entering the post-Khaddafy era.

10-24-11: Convenience store chain 7-11 is opening two new franchises on Benning Road and Bladensburg Road in Northeast.

10-25-11: Republican presidential candidate Rick Perry unveiled his economic plan today in South Carolina.

10-26-11: republican presidential candidate Mitt Romney brought his campaign to Northern Virginia today.

10-26-11: Today the President said he'll use his executive powers to try to help cash strapped college students pay off their debt.

10-31-11: A congressional committee issued its report on allegations of fraud in last year's race for mayor in the district.

10-31-11: A mixed report for Mayor Vincent Gray as his campaign is under a cloud of suspicion.

10-31-11: The Politico website reports front-runner Herman Cain was accused of sexual harassment by two women when he worked as the head of the National Restaurant Association back in the 90's.

11-1-11: a man, who once thought about challenging George Allen for a senate seat next year, has decided to endorse him instead.

11-2-11: According to the Associated Press, a third woman came forward today accusing the Republican of misconduct.

11-2-11: The welfare of circus animals was a concern on Capitol hill today.

11-2-11: President Obama's push to get congress to pass his jobs plan took him to Georgetown today.

11-2-11: Tonight, news 4 has learned that the District is aggressively moving to bring the Washington Redskins training facilities from Northern Virginia back to RFK stadium.

11-3-11: One of the women involved in the Cain controversy may tell her story tomorrow through her lawyer.

11-3-11: A former prosecutor, Glenn Ivey, from Prince George's county is launching a bid for Congress.

11-4-11: The attorney for one of the women who accused Herman Cain of sexual harassment back in the 90's released a statement today.

11-7-11: A fourth woman is accusing republican presidential candidate Herman Cain of inappropriate behavior.

11-7-11: Voters will go to the polls in Virginia to cast ballots in the state senate elections.

11-8-11: We are awaiting a live news conference from republican presidential candidate Herman Cain.

11-8-11: Election day is in full swing as 140 seats in the general Assembly is up for grabs.

11-8-11: Republican candidate Herman Cain just held a news conference in Scottsdale Arizona.

11-8-11: A local woman has now come forward in the Herman Cain sexual harassment scandal to say she observed behavior that may support the other women's claims.

11-8-11: Political leaders in the District today tried to jump start a long-struggling effort to gain statehood for the city and its 600,000 residents.

11-9-11: The Herman Cain controversy is expected to come up in some form at tonight's republican presidential debate in Michigan.

11-9-11: Virginia republicans have achieved their goal of winning Senate control away from Democrats for a power sweep.

11-10-11: During a debate last night, Rick Perry was trying to name the three government agencies he'd cut to reduce the national debt.

11-10-11: Emergency legislation to limit the number of medical marijuana growers in the District

11-11-11: "Occupy Vermont" protestors clashed with police late last night in the city of Burlington.

11-11-11: Despite a threat by D.C. police to get tougher on unruly demonstrations after violence last weekend, a top city official says he sees no public safety problems with the protestors.

11-11-11: One of the guys who want to start growing medical marijuana in the district says neighbors have nothing to worry about.

11-14-11: The wife of Republican presidential candidate Herman Cain is speaking out.

Education

9-19-11: An Anne Arundel County school is getting national recognition for integrating the arts with traditional learning program.

9-20-11: Tope defense officials are calling it a milestone for our military. The ban on openly gay service members is now officially over.

9-23-11: On Sunday, NBC News kicks off an initiative called Education Nation.

9-23-11: An update now on Banana man, the high school student in Stafford County who ran around the football field at half time last Friday in a costume. Now that student has been suspended from two weeks' worth of classes.

9-23-11: The superintendent of Virginia's largest school district is stepping down.

9-26-11: Now to Education Nation, it's a week-long initiative by NBC News to discuss the state of our country's schools.

9-27-11: Education nation continues tonight with a discussion about improving schools.

9-28-11: On this Education Nation, it's been said a teachers duty is to inspire and that's what one Arlington County educator is doing in the classroom.

9-28-11: The principal at Colonial Forge High School in Stafford County resigned last night after the Banana man scandal.

9-29-11: There's a group of award winning authors right in our backyard as NBC News continues with its Education Nation.

9-30-11: In tonight's Education Nation a group of volunteer dads have gone back to school to help become positive male role models in children's lives.

9-30-11: "City Year" sponsors young adults dedicated to helping thousands of local public school children.

10-3-11: The DC Police Department is losing officers faster than it can replace them. But hundreds of new officers will be soon hitting the streets.

10-10-11: Thousands of people already visiting the new Martin Luther King Memorial since it first opened in late august.

10-11-11: A group of worried parents are heading to the fall Church City council tonight as they try to save a very unique preschool program in their community.

10-11-11: The First Lady is leading the effort to break the world record for the most people doing jumping jacks in 24 hours as a part of her "Let's Move" campaign.

10-14-11: After a seven week delay caused by hurricane Irene the Martin Luther King Memorial is being dedicated on Sunday Morning.

10-14-11: A provocative new exhibit just opened at the Corcoran gallery of Art called 30 Americans.

10-27-11: Fairfax County school officials have had second thoughts about a bracelet ban. It's an exclusive story we brought to you on four last night at eleven.

10-31-11: Today was supposed to be moving day at Saint Mary's College in Southern Maryland. More than 200 students will spend the semester living on a cruise ship after mold was discovered in their dorms.

11-1-11: At the DC airport that bears his name a statue of Ronald Regan was unveiled today. It was a chance to recognize his legacy on our nation's transportation.

11-1-11: Rapper Wale surprised students at Central High School in Capitol Heights this afternoon.

11-11-11: President Barack Obama marked this Veteran Day by placing a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery.

11-11-11: That's the sound of 400 members of the Notre Dame marching band practicing for Saturday's big game as they take the field of bishop McNamara High School in Forestville today.

11-11-11: The sacrifice of our Veterans is being remembered across the DC area including the annual observance at the Vietnam Veterans memorial.

Violence & Crime

9-14-11: The parents of Casey Anthony have spoken out for the first time since their daughter walked free from jail.

9-14-11: After claiming Real Housewife of D.C., Michaela Salahi was kidnapped; Warren County Sheriff's Office released a statement saying authorities spoke with Michaela yesterday and say she is safe.

9-14-11: Campus police at the University of Maryland are investigating a sexual assault on campus.

9-14-11: Investigators are surrounding the home of former "Real Housewives of D.C." star Michaela Salahi. Her husband says she was kidnapped and is making an emotional plea to bring him home.

9-15-11: A lover's triangle is believed to be behind a foiled murder plot in Montgomery County.

9-15-11: Investigators say a pot left alone on a stove led to a two-alarm apartment fire in Montgomery County this morning.

9-15-11: Taraq Salahi says he's relieved that his wife Michaela is okay but he says he is devastated that she left him and ran off with the lead guitarist from Journey.

9-19-11: NFL quarterback Vince Young says there's an imposter trying to get money out of people here in the D.C. area.

9-19-11: Police in Aruba are trying a different strategy in their search for Maryland resident Robyn Gardner.

9-19-11: Held without bond a Bowie State student accused of killing her roommate made her first appearance in court today.

9-19-11: An eleven year old Virginia boy is recovering from a gunshot wound.

9-19-11: Investigators say an electrical problem started a fire that destroyed part of a car dealership in Prince George's County.

9-19-11: A Virginia family is suing Starbucks for a million dollars after their five-year-old daughter a video camera inside a restroom in a store in D.C.

9-19-11: A district teenager is now charged in the murder of his best friend.

9-20-11: A two-year-old-boy got his hands on a loaded gun last night then shot himself to death police say while his mother was in the next room.

9-20-11: Aruban police have retracted the last steps of the Maryland woman who disappeared six weeks ago on the Caribbean island.

9-20-11: The foreclosure crisis has hit Prince William County hard in recent years.

9-20-11: The state's attorney has just announced a three-count indictment against two Prince George's County police officers, in connection with the beating of a University of Maryland student after the Duke basketball game in March of 2010.

9-21-11: A shootout at a shopping area in broad daylight between suspects and the driver of an armored vehicle.

9-21-11: The search is on tonight for a teenaged sex assault suspect in Fairfax County.

9-21-11: Bowie State University is holding a memorial service tonight for 18-year-old Domonique Frazier the student killed last week in her dorm room.

9-21-11: Some dramatic moments in the trial of a man accused in a deadly home invasion in Connecticut.

9-21-11: Two Prince George's County police officers charged with beating a University of Maryland student turned themselves in to authorities today.

9-21-11: Troy Davis is scheduled to die by lethal injection tonight for the murder of a police officer.

9-22-11: The investigation into the car bombing in Monroe Michigan continues as authorities are trying to figure out who planted the bomb that injured a man and his two kids.

9-22-11: Breaking news out of southeast Washington tonight where there is a report of stabbing on a metrobus.

9-22-11: Two sexual assaults in the same area of Forestville, Maryland in just ten days.

9-22-11: A convicted cop-killer whose story has prompted worldwide protests has been executed in Georgia.

9-23-11: The driver who allegedly struck and killed a man on a scooter then tried to get away will soon walk out of jail.

9-23-11: Police have arrested a man accused of impersonating Philadelphia Eagles quarterback Vince Young.

9-26-11: A Fairfax woman is on trial for murder as investigators say she threw her two-year-old granddaughter from a parking garage overpass outside Tysons Corner last November.

9-26-11: A lab explosion at that University of Maryland today prompted a building evacuation and sent two students to the hospital.

9-26-11: More explosive testimony in the Amanda Knox trial as she was described as a "she-devil" by an attorney today.

9-27-11: A teen runaway is facing charges tonight for the rape of a young woman in Montgomery County.

9-27-11: Prince George's County police are investigating a report of a child apparently drowning in a bathtub.

9-27-11: Yesterday morning at an apartment complex in Oxon Hill, a young woman was sexually assaulted by a stranger in her bedroom.

9-27-11: Prosecutors presented key evidence in Carmela de la Rosa's trial including her videotaped confession in the trial of a grandmother who tossed her two-year old granddaughter on a parking garage overpass outside a shopping mall last November.

9-27-11: Doctor Conrad Murray is charged with the manslaughter in the death of Michael Jackson.

9-27-11: The Amanda Knox appeals trial is winding down in Perugia, Italy. A verdict could come by the end of the week.

9-28-11: Prosecutors rested their case against a woman accused of throwing her 2-year-old granddaughter to her death at Tyson's Corner Center last year.

9-28-11: Agents for U.S Immigration and Customs Enforcement scoured the country in a week-long sweep known as Cross Check.

9-28-11: Questions about Michael Jackson's health were the focus of testimony during day two of the Dr. Conrad Murray trial.

9-28-11: A Massachusetts man arrested accused of plotting to destroy the Pentagon and the U.S Capitol with large remote controlled aircraft filled with explosives.

9-28-11: Hateful words spray painted on local schools just days apart.

9-29-11: We begin tonight with a brutal sex assault on a woman out on her morning jog.

9-29-11: In the murder trial of Carmela de la Rosa, her attorneys are not disputing the facts of the case but say she cannot be held responsible.

9-29-11: Stephen Pittman appeared in court today as police say he posed as Philadelphia Eagles quarterback Vince Young to bilk victims out of thousands of dollars.

9-29-11: The first bodyguard to reach Michael Jackson's bedroom says he was told to hide medicine vials before getting help for the dying pop star.

9-29-11: There are new clues in the search for a missing community activist from Alexandria.

9-29-11: The U.S. Capitol police is investigating "The Onion" newspaper after the satirical website sent out a series of tweets about a hostage situation inside the Capitol.

9-29-11: A British man was mauled by a great White shark while swimming in South Africa yesterday.

9-30-11: Police have not decided what charges to file in the death of a George Washington law student and army veteran last week.

9-30-11: A man drove off a ravine a week ago and his sons and daughter came to his rescue.

9-30-11: President Obama says the U.S. has dealt a major blow to one of al-queada's most dangerous affiliates.

10-3-11: Testimony resumed today in the trial of a Fairfax woman accused of killing her two-year-old granddaughter.

10-3-11: The terror suspect authorities say wanted to fly remote controlled model planes with bombs into the Pentagon and the Capitol pleaded not guilty at his arraignment today in Massachusetts.

10-3-11: A representative from AT&T and the doctors who treated Michael Jackson took the stand for the prosecution.

10-3-11: Breaking news in Italy where Amanda Knox has just left prison in a motorcade.

10-3-11: Two Maryland students found an intruder sleeping on their couch in their apartment.

10-4-11: A bribery scheme that allegedly involved more than 20 million dollars in illicit payments landed 4 people behind bars.

10-4-11: An expert witness took the stand today in the Carmela de la Rosa murder trial.

10-4-11: Amanda Knox is expected to arrive in her hometown of Seattle, Washington within the hour one day after being freed from an Italian prison.

10-4-11: A pedestrian has been killed along I-395 at Glebe Road.

10-4-11: Just a few minutes ago, court adjourned for the day in day six of the Conrad Murray trial in Los Angeles.

10-4-11: The reward for coming forward with any information as to who dumped a bag of puppies into a landfill is being increased.

10-4-11: An Italian appeals court just threw out Amanda Knox's murder conviction in the death of her British roommate four years ago.

10-5-11: Closing arguments are now underway in the Carmel de la Rosa trial.

10-5-11: Now that Amanda Knox is back home, her father says the focus is her well-being and getting her re-associated with her being a regular person again.

10-5-11: Police say two people stole an SUV then plowed into a home trying to make their getaway.

10-5-11: Federal investigators are examining home video of a helicopter crash in an effort to learn why it went down in New York's East River.

10-5-11: A transgender man was killed nearly a month ago and his partner is looking for who's responsible.

10-5-11: An intruder picked the wrong home to break into this weekend in Manassas.

10-5-11: The involuntary manslaughter trial of Michael Jackson's personal physician took a chilling turn today.

10-6-11: Two incidents near the U.S. Capitol disrupted activities in that area this morning.

10-6-11: A guilty verdict tonight for a Virginia woman who threw her two-year-old granddaughter from a parking overpass in Tyson's Corner.

10-6-11: Doctor Conrad Murray's lawyer grilled a coroner about what he called mistakes in collecting evidence in the days following Jackson's death.

10-6-11: Four people indicted this week in a massive bribery investigation were in court today.

10-6-11: Amanda Knox is back home in Seattle after spending four years in an Italian jail for murder she says she did not commit.

10-6-11: It took jurors less than six hours to find Carmela de la Rosa "guilty" of first degree murder rejecting the suspect's insanity defense.

10-6-11: An 11month-old child brought back to its mother unresponsive.

10-7-11: A deadly hit and run is now being investigated as a homicide.

10-7-11: Chilling evidence in the case of Carmen de la Rosa convicted of killing her granddaughter.

10-7-11: A jury convicted De La Rosa yesterday of first degree murder for throwing her two-year-old granddaughter, Angelyn Ogdock, off of a walkway.

10-7-11: Prosecutors in the trial of Dr. Conrad Murray played a lengthy interview police conducted with Michael Jackson's doctor shortly after his death.

10-7-11: Specially trained cadaver dogs have been combing the beaches all week, searching for any sign of Robyn Gardner.

10-7-11: A family in pain over the suspicious death of one of its youngest members.

10-7-11: New developments in the search for a missing Missouri baby. The FBI confirms the search of a Johnson County landfill is connected to the case.

10-10-11: Animal cops are finding more and more cases of fighting and cruelty thanks to tips from neighbors.

10-10-11: The desperate search continues for a missing ten-month-old girl.

10-10-11: It was a heartbreaking weekend for members of the Petworth community in northwest D.C.

10-11-11: A suspect is in custody and charged in Prince George's County in connection with attacks on women near a Metro station.

10-11-11: Dr. Conrad Murray was back in the courtroom today for week three of his slightly publicized trial for the death of the King of pop.

10-11-11: Time is ticking before Attorney General Eric Holder is ordered to hand lawmakers documents highlighting his alleged relationship with a controversial gun smuggling operation.

10-11-11: Agents of the Iranian government are accused in a plan to kill the Saudi Ambassador to the United States.

10-11-11: A woman is in custody accused of stabbing a shopper outside a Target store in Prince George's county.

10-12-11: The woman accused of stabbing a shopper outside a Target store in Prince George's County yesterday will be held without bond.

10-12-11: A month's long federal investigation led to a raid within a quiet Leesburg, Virginia neighborhood.

10-12-11: The Obama administration says it will push for new sanctions against Iran for its role in the plot to kill the Saudi Ambassador to the U.S.

10-12-11: A police chase that started in Fairfax County came to a dramatic end 10 miles away in Prince George's County.

10-12-11: Defense lawyers for Michael Jackson's doctors who say swallowing propofol would have little to no effect on a person's body.

10-12-11: A 20-year-old Fredericksburg man is behind bars accused of stabbing another man to death this morning.

10-13-11: New details tonight in the murder of a Maryland woman whose son is still missing.

10-13-11: Almost a year after a man died outside the D.C. 9 nightclub a new wrongful death lawsuit is expected to be filed against the club's owners.

10-14-11: 11 year-old William McQuain has not been seen in nearly two weeks.

10-14-11: There are some new developments tonight in the LuluLemon murder case. A judge dismissed some pre-trial motions.

10-14-11: The family of a man who died outside a D.C. nightclub has filed a multi-million dollar wrongful death lawsuit against that club.

10-14-11: Breaking news in Northeast Washington, where federal agents have raided the D.C. Farmer's Market building on Neal Street.

10-14-11: New information surrounding the murder of a Germantown woman, Jane McQuain, was stabbed and beaten to death.

10-14-11: Arlington County police have arrested two people for stealing used restaurant cooking oil.

10-17-11: New evidence is revealed in the case against a Germantown man accused of murdering his wife and fleeing to North Carolina.

10-17-11: In Maryland, a team of volunteers joined Montgomery County police combing two wooded areas today for any sign of 11 year-old William McQuain.

10-17-11: A handful of drug companies are being investigated for allegedly selling hard-to-get prescription drugs at inflated prices.

10-17-11: D.C. Mayor Vincent Gray reasserted his innocence today as a federal jury probes deeper into allegations of payoffs in his 2010 campaign for mayor.

10-17-11: Two years ago today, Virginia Tech student Morgan Harrington disappeared. Today, police continue their search for her killer.

10-17-11: A Manassas woman accused of setting her apartment complex on fire over the weekend will remain in jail.

10-18-11: The body of 11-year-old William McQuain was found in a wooded area of Clarksburg, Maryland.

10-18-11: A metro bus was hit by a front end loader injuring six people.

10-18-11: This morning, a search dog found the 11-year-old's body in a wooded area of Clarksburg, Maryland.

10-18-11: There's a warning out to parents in Fairfax County after the attempted abduction of a teenage girl a week ago.

10-19-11: Authorities in Ohio say they've captured or killed all but one animal that were loose from a nature preserve in Zanesville, Ohio.

10-19-11: The verdict is in for a teen accused in a deadly distracted driving case in Prince George's County.

10-19-11: There's new video evidence in the case of a Montgomery County mother and her son both found murdered this month.

10-19-11: There are new developments in the search for a Kansas City baby missing since October 4th.

10-19-11: Authorities in New York say some real life crooks may have fashioned their robberies after a movie scene.

10-19-11: A judge revoked Lindsay Lohan's probation after she skipped out on some community service appointments.

10-19-11: Jessica Nguyen was killed in her home last May and police say her stepfather is responsible.

10-20-11: A man admits to assaulting two women and is now accused of using Facebook to lure a young girl into his home.

10-20-11: A father of two is murdered after a confrontation on a metro bus.

10-20-11: Moammar Khadafy, the longest running dictator in the Arab world, was killed today.

10-20-11: Prosecutors are expected to rest their case today in the trial against Michael Jackson's doctor, Conrad Murray.

10-20-11: Students claim they were grabbed, scratched, and even choked by their teacher in a Montgomery County school.

10-20-11: An anonymous tip helped animal control officers uncover a terrible case of animal hoarding in Frederick County.

10-20-11: There's a growing backlash tonight after the death of dozens of wild animals in Ohio.

10-20-11: The estranged husband of a murdered Maryland woman remains behind bars in North Carolina.

10-20-11: There were varying degrees of emotions as word of Khaddafy's death hit D.C. communities.

10-21-11: Were following breaking news in Rockville right now where a jury reached a not guilty verdict in the trial of a Silver Spring Teacher accused of assaulting her students.

10-21-11: Police in Prince George's County are asking parents to be on alert after reports that a 10-year-old girl was sexually assaulted.

10-21-11: two postal workers were killed after being exposed to mail contaminated with anthrax ten years ago. And those postal workers are being remembered.

10-21-11: Police are looking for a suspect in a deadly shooting in Alexandria.

10-24-11: Two elderly people at a restaurant community are dead in what police are calling a murder suicide.

10-24-11: Jury selection is now underway in Montgomery County in the trial of Brittany Norwood.

10-24-11: After four weeks, the prosecution rested its case against Doctor Conrad Murray.

10-24-11: Police are investigating a deadly hit and run crash in D.C.'s Shaw neighborhood. 10-24-11: Police in the district are investigating a string of robberies that happened over the weekend.

10-25-11: Brittany Norwood is accused of killing co-worker Jayna Murray inside the Lululemon store in Bethesda earlier this year.

10-25-11: Forest Heights, just east of the D.C. city limits, is considering putting up six surveillance cameras to help deter crime.

10-25-11: It has been two days since the powerful earthquake in Turkey and survivors are still being pulled from the rubble.

10-25-11: Testimony in the case against Dr. Conrad Murray came to a screeching halt today whe none of the witnesses for the defense suddenly became ill.

10-25-11: two women took their neighbor to court for failing to clean up after a dog she watched.

10-25-11: Members of one of the oldest historically black sororities founded right here in D.C. remain on alert in Texas.

10-26-11: We are following developments in a murder case that took the life of a Howard University student.

10-26-11: "Brittany lost it" is how Brittany Norwood's lawyers described her actions the night her co-worker was killed inside the Lululemon store in Bethesda.

10-26-11: Thousands of people have camped out in city parks and plazas across the country in support of the Occupy movement.

10-26-11: A man visiting the District yesterday experienced something that is not all that uncommon in many big cities: robbery.

10-27-11: A D.C. father was sentenced to 40 years in jail today for murdering his teenaged daughter and dumping her body in a trash can.

10-27-11: Questions about whether Michael Jackson was addicted to painkillers dominated testimony today in the trial of Doctor Conrad Murray.

10-27-11: The sports junkies in 106.7 the fan are used to broadcasting breaking sports news every morning.

10-27-11: Lawyers for a University of Virginia from Chevy Chase Maryland accused of killing his college girlfriend are awaiting a judge's decision on whether the victim's medical records are pertinent to the case.

10-27-11: First on News 4, a CIA contractor has been arrested on a series of child pornography charges.

10-27-11: It's the second day of testimony in the Lululemon murder trial. Brittany Norwood is accused of murdering her co-worker Jayna Murray last march at the Bethesda yoga shop.

10-28-11: Gary Giordano will spend another 30 days behind bars in Aruba.

10-28-11: Jurors at the Lululemon murder trial heard testimony from employees at a Bethesda Apple store who heard a loud scuffle the night Jayna Murray was found dead.

10-28-11: A shooting at burger king in Frederick has remained a mystery until now.

10-31-11: The D.C. government is cracking down on residents they say owe millions in back taxes after the News 4 I-team started asking questions.

10-31-11: Breaking news in Fairfax County where police have arrested the parents in the drowning of a 1-year-old girl.

10-31-11: A California man is lucky to be alive after he was attacked by a great white shark over the weekend.

10-31-11: The trial of Doctor Conrad Murray is in its final days.

10-31-11: We begin with a first-of-its-kind murder trial in Prince William County for an illegal immigrant involved in a deadly car crash.

10-31-11: A Halloween robbery. One man was in a mask and the other in a wig.

10-31-11: Prosecutors suffered a potential setback in the trial of a woman accused of killing her co-worker inside the Lululemon store in Bethesda.

10-31-11: Police in Spotsylvania County will be stepping up patrols on this Halloween night as they investigate a series of attempted abductions in and around the county.

11-1-11: A young man clinging to life after being shot in the head in Georgetown during a violent few hours last night.

11-1-11: The D.C government is cracking down on its biggest Tax Cheats after our News4 I-team started asking questions about how some of your neighbors are getting away with not paying up.

11-1-11: Scandals in D.C. government are starting to take a toll on the city's reputation on Capitol Hill and could trigger more interference with the way the city is run.

11-1-11: Police in Stafford County are hoping someone recognizes the man in this sketch. They say hes the suspect in an attempted abduction that happened last week.

11-1-11: Jurors at the Lululemon murder trial are hearing today from a police detective.

11-2-11: After days of watching and hearing graphic testimony and evidence the jury could begin deliberations soon in the trial of a woman accused of killing her co-worker at a Bethesda yoga store.

11-2-11: The man accused of murdering his estranged wife and her 11-year-old returned to Montgomery County today.

11-2-11: A would be pickpocket on Metro got more than she bargained for yesterday.

11-3-11: A barber in Howard County is charged with sexually abusing a 13-year-old client and police say they are concerned there may be more young victims.

11-3-11: New information about the Halloween night shooting in Georgetown that leaves a 17-year-old in critical condition.

11-3-11: Investigators are trying to figure out what sparked a deadly house fire in Montgomery County.

11-3-11: In closing arguments in Los Angeles, prosecutors called Dr. Conrad Murray a reckless physician who knew that giving propofol as a sleep aid went against common medical practice.

11-3-11: One day after a conviction in the Lululemon case the parents of murder victim Jayna Murray returned to the store where their daughter died.

11-3-11: A gunman opens fire at rush hour along one of the city's busiest thoroughfares.

11-3-11: A mock snow drill was held in Montgomery County today.

11-3-11: New and disturbing details are coming out about the Germantown mother and son who were murdered last month.

11-4-11: Just moments after a Washington man pleaded guilty to a number of arsons, he was slapped with new indictments for a series of other fires.

11-4-11: An SUV slammed into the back of a tractor trailer at 2:15 this morning.

11-4-11: The jury in the Conrad Murray trial has been behind closed doors since this morning. So far, no Verdict has been reached.

11-4-11: We are less than two hours away from quitting time tonight for the jury charged with deciding Doctor Conrad Murray's fate.

11-4-11: Fairfax County police arrest a woman for selling synthetic marijuana known as K2 near George Mason University.

11-4-11: Residents on a street in Columbia Heights woke up to a very unpleasant surprise this morning.

11-7-11: There was a hearing today in the George Hugely murder trial, the former UVA lacrosse player accused in the death of his ex-girlfriend last year.

11-7-11: Breaking news: Doctor Conrad Murray has been found guilty of involuntary manslaughter.

11-7-11: After the guilty verdict was read cheers and celebration erupted from Michael Jackson fans gathered outside the court house.

11-7-11: A Frostburg State University student charged in the stabbing death of a classmate will have to stay behind bars a bit longer.

11-7-11: There's been another attempted abduction in Spotsylvania County.

11-7-11: The verdict in the Conrad Murray trial was unanimous in the Conrad Murray trial.

11-8-11: Legendary Penn State football coach, Joe Paterno, may be forced to resign because of the sex abuse scandal involving a former assistant coach.

11-8-11: A teenager has died after a shooting in the heart of Georgetown on Halloween night.

11-8-11: Police say four people have been struck near the D.C./Maryland border at Kenilworth Avenue and Quarles Street.

11-8-11: A teenager has died after a shooting in the heart of Georgetown on Halloween night.

11-9-11: A lonely Florida housewife was arrested yesterday after she allegedly called in a bomb threat to an airport.

11-9-11: Legendary football coach, Joe Paterno, announcing his plans to retire at the end of the season.

11-9-11: Chuck Ryan returned to his job as a D.C. firefighter today after he was nearly burned half of his body.

11-9-11: William Robinson has been wanted for 14 years for the armed robbery of a 79-year-old man in Missouri and turned himself in at Lafayette Park.

11-9-11: Family and friends said their goodbyes today to two brothers killed in a fiery crash along route 50.

11-10-11: On this eve of veteran's day, there is more of a fall out about mishandled remains of America's war dead.

11-10-11: It was an emotional day in court today where a young man plead guilty in a deadly crash that took the lives of three of his friends.

11-10-11: A Washington Nationals player kidnapped in Venezuela and authorities have found the SVU used to abduct him.

11-10-11: The White House says President Obama's thoughts and prayers are with the victims of alleged child abuse at Penn State.

11-10-11: A man convicted of killing a teenager in Greenbelt over some tattoo ink will spend the rest of his life in jail.

11-10-11: Penn State and its celebrated football program were thrown into turmoil with this investigation as the team will be led by defensive coordinator Tom Bradley.

11-11-11: The child sex abuse scandal at Penn State has been the talk to college campuses across the country.

11-11-11: We begin with the saga of Wilson Ramos, the National's player who was kidnapped in Venezuela.

11-11-11: Assistant coach Mike McQueary, the key witness in the child sex abuse case at Penn State has been placed on administrative leave.

11-11-11: Within the hour, the new President of Penn State held a news conference to announce plans to revisit the ethical standards and policies of the University and restore its reputation.

11-14-11: There's word tonight at least one alleged victim is hiring an attorney to explore a lawsuit against former Penn State assistant coach Jerry Sandusky.

11-14-11: U.S. Park police have issued an arrest warrant for a man accused of firing shots near the White House.

11-14-11: D.C police are investigating a deadly shooting at 21st street and Maryland Avenue.

11-14-11: Investigators in Washington State are searching for a missing two year old boy.

11-28-11: A woman who is wanted in our area for carjacking and bank robbery appears to be on the move.

11-28-11: Recent high profile scandals prompted several states, including Virginia, to consider tightening laws on reporting child sex abuse.

11-28-11: The Gaithersburg man that was jailed in Aruba after his travel companion vanished is expected to walk free tomorrow.

11-28-11: D.C police continue to investigate a violent fight that left one man dead and five others wounded.

11-28-11: Private conversations between former Prince George's County Executive Jack Johnson and wife just before they were arrested in a corruption case.